

The Five-University Annual Graduate Conference on Education 2025 Waseda University

The Graduate School of Education, Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan, invites graduate students at Beijing Normal University, Korea University, University College London Institute of Education, and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign for an annual international conference on education. The conference, hosted by Waseda University, will be held online from 21:00 to 24:00 (Japan Standard Time; UTC/GMT+9), Saturday, November 29, 2025. Conference participants will present a 20-minute paper on any topic related to education at a round-table session.

The Call for Proposals for the conference will open on Wednesday, September 24, 2025 and close on Tuesday, October 21, 2025. Early submissions are encouraged.

Individual Papers: Papers are formal presentations on any field of education by one or more authors within a 25-minute period, including 20 minutes for presentation and 5 minutes for discussion.

Presenters must be graduate students of education at Beijing Normal University, Korea University, University College London Institute of Education, or the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

As there are only four presentation slots per university, presenters will be selected on a competitive basis.

Proposal Format

Please include the following information:

- Your name and affiliation
- Contact information (e-mail)
- Title: 15 Words
- Abstract: 250 Words

Submission: Send an attachment file of your proposal to the 5 university-exchange program in the Office of Education at edu-global@list.waseda.jp.

Inquiry: edu-global@list.waseda.jp

Notification: Early November

Submission of materials:

Accepted presenters are required to submit either a short paper (4 to 6 pages, formatted in Microsoft Word) OR a preliminary version of presentation slides (16 to 20 slides in PowerPoint format) by Thursday, November 20. Submitted materials will be shared with conference participants prior to the event.