Dear IOSTE members and prospective participants of IOSTE 2020,

Greetings,

With the ongoing uncertainty caused by the spread of COVID 19, the IOSTE Board has finally decided to organise an online conference. Details of the on-line conference for participants, presenters, posters, and presiders will be available shortly.

Planning is under way to run an online conference. Presenters who have already submitted abstracts will be under process for acceptance and able to present at the online conference.

More details will be coming soon.

Many thanks to all of IOSTE members, colleagues, and prospective participants who have waited patiently for the announcement.
